

Flavortext:

The Designer's favorite number is said to be the digit 8. As they would say, "It's only logical."

- AND: Both active.
- NAND: Something inactive.
- OR: Something active.
- NOR: Both inactive.
- XOR: Both different.
- IFF: Both same.

One of the passwords seems to be related to this number, but it can only be revealed once you consider the meaning of an "unseen" GRAY.
